SPIRITUALISM: MIRACLES IN THE LIGHT OF SCIENCE

BY A SPIRITUALIST. H.P.H.

The Washington Post (1877-1954); Aug 2, 1914; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The Washington Post pg. ES7 leaving him in an altered condition, the light must have been in some connexion with his being a spiritualist.

Range of Miracles.
The only thing that is disagreeable in the case is the idea that the light may possibly have been produced in a way that would lead people to believe it was supernatural.
Instead of admiring the miracle, people would then begin to look for other marvels in the case which might be due to the same cause. This would lead to all sorts of speculation and voodooism.

I am not going to tell you about miracles in my case, because it is not my business to do so. But I am going to tell you about miracles in general, because they are of interest to everyone.

I have seen many cases of miracles in my life, and I have been witness to many miracles in other people's lives. I have seen people cured of diseases, and I have seen people raised from the dead.

But I have also seen cases where the miracles have been produced by profane means. In one case, for example, I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will heal him." And to make matters worse, they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him die." And they did. They gave him a poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other cases, because they are of interest to everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who were cured of diseases, and I have seen people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who
were cured of diseases, and I have seen
people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who
were cured of diseases, and I have seen
people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who
were cured of diseases, and I have seen
people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who
were cured of diseases, and I have seen
people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who
were cured of diseases, and I have seen
people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who
were cured of diseases, and I have seen
people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.

I have seen many cases of people who
were cured of diseases, and I have seen
people who were raised from the dead.
But I have also seen cases where the
miracles have been produced by
profane means. In one case, for example,
I saw a man who was very sick, and he was about to die. His family prayed for
him, and they said, "I hope our Lord will
heal him." And to make matters worse,
they said, "If he doesn't, we'll make him
die." And they did. They gave him a
poisonous drug, and he died.

I am not going to tell you about this
case, because it is not my business to do so.
But I am going to tell you about other
cases, because they are of interest to
everyone.