THREE BURNED TO DEATH
Mother and Two Children Parish in a Tenement House Fire.

ARRESTED BY THE POLICE AND BURIED
Family of Toronto and Two Women Overcome by the Dean Rescue.—A Peabody's Box.

A mother and two young children were burned to death at a tenement building on Third Avenue and 201st Street, near the Administration Building and the New York County Courthouse. The mother and two children were overcome by smoke and burned to death in the tenement building.

The fire started in the tenement building at around 2:30 a.m. Police and rescue workers arrived on the scene, but the mother and two children were already dead.

The family was identified as the Dean family. The mother, Mrs. Dean, and her two children, ages 4 and 6, were overcome by smoke and fire in the tenement building.

The police and fire departments arrived at the scene and worked to extinguish the fire and rescue the victims. The two children were pronounced dead on the scene.

The cause of the fire is under investigation.
