Tread on the Spanish Colors.

Special to The Post.

Norfolk, Va., April 17.—The tars aboard the battle-ship Texas have an unique way of showing their disdain for the yellow and red flag of Spain. Bunting in these shades has been draped down the board gangway of the battle-ship, so as to form a carpet over which the American sailors may tread.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.